Manuscript No.: _____

The author(s) hereby affirms that the manuscript entitled:

is original, that all statements asserted as facts are based on author(s) careful investigation and research for accuracy, that the manuscript does not, in whole or part, infringe any copyright or violate any right of privacy or other personal or property right whatsoever, that it has not been published in total or in part and is not being submitted or considered for publication in total or in part elsewhere, and that author(s) has full power and authority to enter into this copyright assignment and to make the grants herein contained.

In signing this form, each author acknowledges that he/she participated in the work in a substantive way and is prepared to take public responsibility for the work. If the above statement cannot be certified, justification for duplicate publication and permission to republish copyrighted material must be included with the covering letter. Please include a statement declaring any commercial relationships that may pertain to this paper.

In signing this form, each author further affirms that he or she has read and understands the "Ethical Guidelines for Publication of Research" and consents to the investigation of any improprieties or violations thereof that may be alleged. Each author further releases and holds harmless The Endocrine Society from any claim or liability that may arise therefrom.

The author(s), in consideration of the acceptance of the above work for publication, does hereby assign and transfer to The Endocrine Society all of the rights and interest in and to the copyright of the above titled work in its current form and in any form subsequently revised for publication and/or electronic dissemination and does hereby appoint The Endocrine Society to obtain all right, title, and interest to the copyright for the above titled work.

Publication Charge Agreement: The undersigned agree to honor publication charges as outlined in the Instructions to Authors if the manuscript is published.

The Journals are copyrighted by The Endocrine Society to protect The Society and authors from unauthorized use of its contents. The Society grants to authors the royalty-free right of republication in any work of which they are the author or editor, subject only to giving proper credit in the work to the original publication of the article by The Endocrine Society. Therefore, authors do not need to contact The Endocrine Society office to request permission to reproduce their work.

All authors must sign in the order in which each is listed in the authorship. Authors may submit copies of this document independently if they are located at different institutions, but authors signing independently must sign on the line that reflects their authorship placement.
